

CALIFORNIA CONSUMER PRIVACY ACT NOTICE FOR CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS

Last Revised on January 1, 2023

Why We Are Providing This Notice to You

We are providing this notice to inform California consumers about how we collect, use, and disclose personal information and about the rights California consumers have regarding their personal information. This notice only applies to visitors, users, and others who reside in the State of California (“consumers” or “you”). We are providing this notice to you in compliance with the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (the “CCPA”). If terms used in this notice are defined in the CCPA, they have the same meaning here as they do in the CCPA.

Please note that this notice is in addition to, but does not replace, the information contained in the Privacy Notice of Midland Credit Management, Inc., Midland Funding LLC, MRC Receivables Corporation, Midland Funding NCC-2 Corporation, Atlantic Credit & Finance, Inc., and Asset Acceptance LLC (collectively, “we,” “us,” or “our”). You should read both documents carefully and understand them.

This Notice Does Not Apply to Everyone or to All Types of Information

The CCPA applies to certain information that identifies, relates to, describes, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or household (“Personal Information”).

Under the CCPA, Personal Information does not include publicly available information from government records or certain de-identified or aggregated consumer information. In addition, the CCPA does not apply at all to some specific types of information, like (1) health or medical information covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and the California Confidentiality of Medical Information Act (“CMIA”), or clinical trial data; or (2) personal information covered by certain sector-specific privacy laws, including the Fair Credit Reporting Act (“FCRA”), the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (“GLBA”), the California Financial Information Privacy Act (“FIPA”), and the Driver’s Privacy Protection Act of 1994. Accordingly, this notice does not apply to these types of information.

We only knowingly collect information that is subject to the GLBA, or which otherwise is not included in the CCPA’s definition of Personal Information. Therefore, we do not knowingly collect any Personal Information that is subject to the CCPA. This notice is therefore only applicable in the unlikely event we have collected information subject to the CCPA. For information on how we collect and use information subject to the GLBA, please see our PRIVACY NOTICE.

This notice also does not apply to consumers who do not reside in the State of California, or to Encore Capital Group, Inc. (“Encore”), any of Encore’s subsidiaries or affiliates not engaged in the purchase or collection of consumer receivables, or any of Encore’s subsidiaries or affiliates located outside the United States of America.

This notice also does not apply to any of our job applicants, employment candidates, employees, directors, officers, members, owners, or contractors (collectively “Employment-related Persons”). Information about our collection and use of Personal Information for Employment-related Persons is available at the company’s website.

Only you, or a person (either a natural person or a person registered with the California Secretary of State) that you authorize to act on your behalf, may make a verifiable consumer request related to your Personal Information. You may also make a verifiable consumer request on behalf of your minor child.

If you choose to authorize another person to make a verifiable consumer request on your behalf, we will require that person to provide us with either a copy of a valid power of attorney or written permission from you authorizing them to submit the request on your behalf. Unless your authorized agent provides us with a valid copy of a power of attorney, we will also require them to verify their identity directly with us before we will respond to the request.

We cannot respond to your request or provide you with Personal Information if we cannot verify your identity or authority to make the request and confirm the Personal Information relates to you. Please note that we will require you to provide different information depending upon the specific right(s) you are choosing to exercise. For example:

- If you choose to request specific pieces of information in exercising your Right to Know Personal Information, we must verify your identity to a reasonably high degree of certainty. This means we will require you to provide at least three pieces of information that we consider reliable for determining your identity that we can match to information in our database. We will also require you to submit a declaration signed under penalty of perjury confirming that you are the consumer whose Personal Information is subject to the request.

- If you request deletion of Personal Information, we may need to verify your identity to either a reasonable degree of certainty or a reasonably high degree of certainty using the processes described above, depending upon the Personal Information you ask us to delete.

Making a verifiable consumer request does not require you to create an account with us.

We endeavor to respond to a verifiable consumer request within 45 days of its receipt. If we require more time (up to an additional 45 days for a total of 90 days from the date we received your request), we will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing. If you have an account with us, we may deliver our written response to that account, at our option. If you do not have an account with us, we will deliver our written response by mail or electronically, at your option. Any disclosures we provide will only cover the 12-month period preceding our receipt of a verifiable consumer request. The response we provide will also explain the reasons we cannot comply with a request, or are not required to comply with a request, if applicable.

We do not charge a fee to process or respond to your verifiable consumer request but are permitted to do so if your request is excessive, repetitive, or manifestly unfounded. If we determine that the request warrants a fee, we will tell you why we made that decision and provide you with a cost estimate before completing your request.
